FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia (Free-Press-Release.com) January 25, 2008 -- Ben Tiew, the founder of Unstoppable Profits Team has just launched a powerful system that even a newbie with no technical background can start their own successful home business without costing a fortune. The system is built for one of the world's best home business programs known as Success University.

Success University, the world's first online learning company has become the #1 most visited personal development company on the internet with over 65,000 enrollees from more than 179 countries. The lucrative compensation plan offered by Success University made it one of the best home businesses available today and it has spread throughout the world like wildfire.

The highly duplicable system created by Unstoppable Profits Team has automated 90% of the task for growing a responsive team. This is on top of the default system provided by Success University. What makes the Unstoppable Profits system so powerful is that every technical aspect has been taken care of, from a high impact, powerful lead capture page, high conversion sales page, to email follow-ups which have been done for all Unstoppable Profits Team members. In short, the system is newbie-friendly.

Advanced marketers will find the system a goldmine because of its high duplicability which is very crucial in growing their businesses. The system provides leverage for Unstoppable Profits Team members without spending countless hours going through trial by error themselves. In showing their real commitment, The Unstoppable Profits Team will even go one step further by offering additional service such as blog setups for free.

Unstoppable Profits cares about their team members and are committed to their members' success. Their goal is to help at least 1500 people to earn full time income in the comfort of their homes by the end of 2009. Since the team provides lifetime personal support to all its members, they have decided to put a limit to the total number of new members that they will accept.

Members of Unstoppable Profits Team will gain insight of the system which includes the highly controversial Internet MLM Success e-book which has responsible for growing thousands upon thousands of new members, Lead Capture Page and Sales Page customized with member's affiliate details, plus follow-up emails which will be set up by the Unstoppable Profits technical team. Others include team blogs and free service offers by the team.
